

Former President and CEO of Catholic Medical Partners, Dennis R. Horrigan, Joins Optimity Advisors

As a New Senior Advisor, Horrigan Brings Invaluable, Real-World Success as a Leader of One of Country's Top Performing ACOs

WASHINGTON, DC (January 27, 2016) – Optimity Advisors (Optimity) today announced that Dennis Horrigan, former President and CEO of Catholic Medical Partners (CMP), has joined the rapidly-growing firm as a Healthcare Senior Advisor. Horrigan will provide strategic guidance and hands-on support to Optimity's healthcare clients as they create new, high-performing delivery models to improve patient outcomes and control costs. Optimity is a strategy, operations and technology advisory firm that helps clients in complex industries navigate rapid market and technological change.

During Horrigan's ten-year leadership at CMP, he grew the organization from 700 to almost 1,000 physicians and achieved shared savings as the third best performing accountable care organization (ACO) in the country. Horrigan and the leadership team reduced healthcare expenditures for its attributed patient population by eleven percent, saving more than $27 million, while also demonstrating high levels of quality in areas including patient safety, care coordination, preventive health and at-risk populations.

"Designing clinical integration strategies in today's evolving healthcare ecosystem is challenging, but achieving real-world results that include a healthier population and shared savings is the pinnacle of success organizations strive for as they create new models of care," said Doris Stein, Partner and Global Healthcare Practice Lead at Optimity. "We are excited that Dennis expanded his long-term relationship with Optimity to become a Senior Advisor. His expertise, experience and enthusiasm to help other healthcare organizations achieve the same level of success and improved patient care makes him the perfect asset to our team."
